Auction Raises £1,400 for Parity for Disability

Local charity Parity for Disability raised £1,400 from an auction held on Friday 6 March at the Army Golf Club, Aldershot.

The charity held the auction and dinner to raise funds for its services for young people with multiple disabilities in the community.

Garrison Radio DJ Richard Wyeth successfully auctioned off a range of lots including luxury and gift items, and signed memorabilia by celebrities such as Dame Judy Dench, Gordon Ramsey, and Ian Botham.

“On behalf of Parity, a big thank you to everyone who attended the auction and who helped by donating prizes or their time,” said Parity Chairman Paul Roper. “People’s generosity resulted in much-needed funds in a very difficult period when donations are showing a significant reduction.”

About Parity

Parity for Disability is a local charity providing vital services, information and support for children and young adults with multiple disabilities, their families and carers throughout Hampshire, Berkshire and Surrey. The organisation runs two day centres in Farnborough and Camberley, teenage activity schemes, and a music therapy service that operates both on-site and in homes, schools and other locations throughout the area. We are dedicated to ensuring that profoundly disabled people have access to a quality of life that everyone has a right to expect. Our philosophy of Equality, Dignity and Rights is the driving force behind all that we do. Parity is registered charity no 1071571. Web address is: www.parityfordisability.org.uk.
