HOW FIT ARE YOU?

The Trek will be a tough adventure, but within the abilities of most people. When you receive your enrolment fundraising and information pack we will give you all the information you will need to get fit to enjoy the event.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

If you have any medical condition that could be affected by strenuous walking (you will only have to carry a day rucksack with camera, waterbottle etc) or you are over 65, you must get written clearance from your doctor.

You will need to obtain a visa and the appropriate immunisation for a trip to East Africa.

You must be covered by travel insurance which should include cover for helicopter rescue and emergency repatriation. Such cover can be arranged through CAT.

Full compliance with the Trek leaders' safety and other instructions during the Trek is required. Participants taking part in the Trek do so at their own risk. Parity for Disability and CAT cannot be held responsible for loss of damage to personal effects, accident, injury or death howsoever arising.

Under the Data Protection Act you may let us know at any time if you no longer wish to receive mailings from Parity for Disability.

All funds raised should be made payable to Parity for Disability.

If you are unable to meet the sponsorship requirements you may forfeit your place on the Trek.

I accept these conditions of entry
