Festive Donations Needed for Parity Christmas Market

A local charity is looking for festive items and unwanted gifts to sell at their upcoming Christmas Market.

Parity for Disability will be holding their event on Saturday 19 November at Princes Mead Shopping Centre in Farnborough. The charity will run stalls selling gift items, baked goods, jams and chutney, and activities for children.

Items needed include home-baked goods, jams, preserves and chutneys, decorative items, and gifts, novelty items and stocking stuffers.

Anyone with anything to donate is asked to phone Helene at the Parity office on 01252 375581. Any baked goods should be delivered to the Parity day services or office on Friday 18 November.

All proceeds from the event will go to maintain Parity's services for children and adults with multiple disabilities in the community.
